God's Super Hero: Saints Philip and James: Feast Day May 3

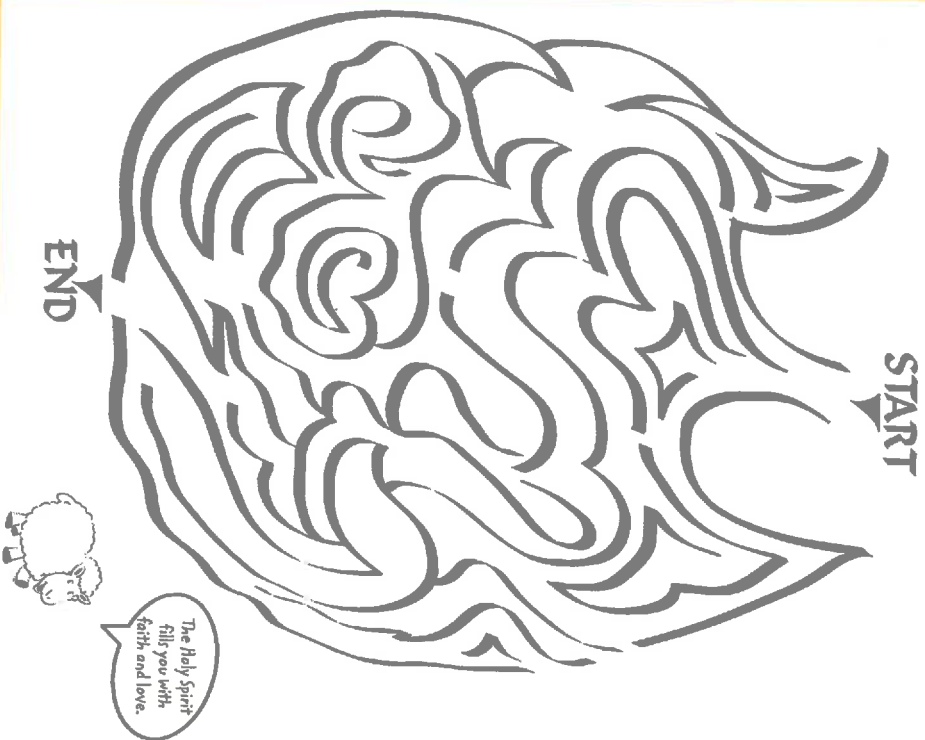

Philip was one of Jesus' Apostles. When Philip saw Jesus for the first time, he went to Nathaniel and told him about the Master: "We have found Him of Whom Moses wrote in the Law and the Prophets, Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of Joseph." Nathaniel asked: "Can any good come out of Nazareth?" Philip answered: "Come and see." Both followed our Lord. At the Last Supper, Philip said, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us." Philip preached the Gospel in Asia Minor and was crucified there in the year 80. He is pictured carrying a cross close to his heart.

James (the Less) was a cousin of our Lord and a brother of the Apostle Jude. He was known as James the Just because he had led a life of penance and prayer. James was given one of the first visions of the Risen Savior. He was appointed Bishop of Jerusalem and was highly respected by all. At the age of eighty-six, he was flung from a tower for honoring Jesus as the Son of God. He was then struck on the head. The sword he carries represents his martyrdom for Christ.

The First Pentecost

God sent the Holy Spirit as flames of fire on the first Pentecost Day. The Holy Spirit helped the disciples speak in many different languages. Everyone in the crowd, from all the different countries, was able to hear about Jesus' love in their own language (see Acts 2:1-13). Find the path through the flame.
